1. Call to Order – 8:38 a.m.
2. Roll Call – Director Fackler, Supervisor Palmblad, Manager Stefaniuk, Social Worker Hummel, Trustees Bos and Sikes.
3. Staffing/Interns – One intern transitioning to full-time position on May 1, other intern continuing until September. New intern will start in September. Staff continuing to take on more EA/GA responsibilities.
4. Programs – Mother/Daughter program with Girl Scouts set for May 8. Charity Knit to celebrate 12th year anniversary on May 15 – 6pm. Hosting AITCOY on May 23. Clinic visits by youth have increased, mainly related to anxiety because of too much device use – looking into other local options to direct youth to. Trustee Bos suggested creating social media videos about the overuse of devices and the harmful impact of blue light on the brain to help raise awareness for youth and parents dealing with anxiety issues. New group, Post Natal Depression Support Group, six-week program to include other social workers in the community to address this growing need.
5. Old Business
6. New Business – Discussion of limited communication between departments that prevents residents from being directed to CFS when services are needed. Discussed the idea of instituting periodic workforce development type events to include all departments to improve cross-department understanding and communication among staff.
7. Schedule Next Meeting – June 18, 2019 at 8:30 a.m.
8. Adjournment – 9:20 a.m.

Chair, Trustee Sikes
