2. ROLL CALL

Present were Supervisor Prouty, Trustee Palmblad, and Youth Director Tonigan.

3. OLD BUSINESS

A. Shooting Stars – update

Thirty five children are registered to attend this year's Shooting Stars program which began June 15th. The program will run for 9 weeks from noon to 4pm, Monday thru Thursday. The new Zumba class will be held on Wednesdays and art class will be held on Mondays, both from 4 to 5pm. Staff has attended a first aid and a behavior management class in preparation of working Shooting Stars.

B. Busing – TABLED

C. Foglia Teen Center

Director Tonigan has been in contact with Mimi McGlauchlin from the Foglia YMCA. Will try and arrange for her to attend our next committee meeting to discuss fees for the 2015-2016 school year.

D. Plans are underway to have a float in this year's Alpine parade, July 19th.

4. NEW BUSINESS

A. Thrive After Three – year wrap up

Thrive After Three ended last week quite successfully. Approximately 5-6 fifth grade children will not be returning next year and Director Tonigan is hopeful they will take advantage of attending the Foglia YMCA's after school program in the fall.

B. Olympics, July 14th, 10am to 2pm

The Olympics is an annual event, hosted by Ela Township. Several townships will be in attendance. Our Youth Department will be responsible for ice and watermelon, as well as medals for our own participants.
